SEC. 17-2207. DUPLICATE AND INDIVIDUAL LICENSES; WHEN EACH REQUIRED.

A duplicate transient merchant license may be issued to the employees of a licensed person when such employees transact business on behalf of such licensed person at multiple location(s). Such employees shall carry any duplicate license issued, which license shall be obtained at the accounts and finance office. If the business of transient merchant in this City is transacted through agents who are not employees or by consignees, or by an unincorporated firm or association, each person so conducting the business of transient merchant in this City shall be required to have a separate license.

SEC. 17-2208. CHARITABLE AND NONPROFIT ORGANIZATIONS.

(a) A religious, charitable, patriotic, social service, civic, or political nonprofit organization shall receive a license for activities regulated under this ordinance where its authorized representatives undertake such activities without remuneration and where the entire proceeds of the activities will go to the organization and not for private profit. The organization shall file the information required for a transient merchant license in the accounts and finance office. The accounts and finance officer or designee thereof shall issue, free of charge, a license for the requested activity. The license shall be valid for a period of one (1) year, and may be renewed on or before the expiration date.

(b) Where such organizations receive only rents or other charges for the use of their premises by transient merchants, such organizations shall require each transient merchant to possess and display its separate license required under this ordinance, unless the organization has obtained a blanket license pursuant to the provisions of Section 17-2209.
