PRESS RELEASE - UPDATE

Date: Monday, April 20, 2009

Press Release: Delays Expected on Parts of I-74 and John Deer Road During US Army Corporal Pautsch Funeral Procession

Delays along I-74 and John Deere Road are expected during the funeral procession for US Army Corporal Jason Pautsch.

Corporal Pautsch's procession will leave Weerts Funeral Home, 3625 Jersey Ridge Road, Davenport on Tuesday morning around 9:15 AM. The procession will cross the I-74 Bridge into Illinois and travel eastbound on John Deere Road to Calvary Church of the Quad Cities, 4700 53rd Street, Moline.

Following church services, the procession will leave Calvary Church around noon and proceed westbound on John Deere Road. The procession will continue on I-74 northbound into Iowa and exit onto River Drive. Final resting place will be at the Rock Island Arsenal Cemetery.

Law Enforcement personnel will be manning major intersections along the route. Expect delays of 15 minutes or more at each intersection during the procession. Please look for alternative routes if possible.
